

Our Venue...

Everyman Altrincham's public spaces have been divided into a variety of lounge and dining areas that have a warm but industrial feel. The bar combines luxurious walnut and marble finishes set against exposed brick and a feature steel over the bar display unit. The mild steel glazed screen, detailed with brass, gives views through to the semi open kitchen. A centrally located sumptuously upholstered banquette combined with unique recycled plastic tables offers a wonderful area for you and your guests to enjoy.
